

BETTER TIMES FOR ATLANTA AND WHOLE SOUTH, SAY BUSINESS MEN

Wholesale Houses Rushed to Fill Orders That Pour in. Georgia Will Enjoy Usual Share of Prosperity.

Every influence is shaping toward an unprecedented era of good times, declare Atlanta retail and wholesale merchant real estate men and bankers, in interviews given The Journal Tuesday.

Heavy crops, a brisk demand for material and a consequent insuring of good prices, and an abundant supply of money for legitimate business has made business men more optimistic than for many years.

Prosperity will be nation-wide, all the sections of the country the south probably will receive the greatest benefits, and of the south Atlanta will feel the effect of the times to a great extent, proportionate to its size than the

Every Whitehall street department store anticipates a greater demand for goods than ever before, and every store has made record purchases as a result.

Beaumont Davison, of the Davison Paxon-Stokes company, voiced the sentiments of the other dealers, when "I have talked to merchants from San Francisco to Cuba, from Terra Haute, Ind., to New Orleans, La., and I did not encounter a single pessimist. I do think there is one alive."

Mr. Davison spent the entire month of August in New York. He was purchasing his fall stock, some specialties and investigating conditions generally. Continuing he said: "Conditions are better than I ever saw them before."

I can speak too strongly. Merchants with a grouse are as scarce as veterinarians. Department stores and dealers in individual lines all over the country are making heavy purchases, bought a bigger stock than ever before."

A BANNER YEAR.
W. H. Brittain, of the J. M. B. company, echoed the assertion of Davison.
"On a recent purchasing trip to New York," he said, "I found wholesale busier than I have ever seen them fore. This is the most certain indication of heavy buying, and heavy buying means good times. Without something foreseen and almost impossible ca-

year commercially. Bankers predict money will be freer than for many years and the action of Secretary of the Treasury W. G. McAdoo in distributing money through the south is an assurance that there will be plenty of cash to conclude the possibility of a financial crisis.

J. P. Allen, of J. P. Allen & Co., says: "Every fall I have predicted less business than ever before. And now, always I have been correct. Atlanta has been growing so rapidly and substantially that business increases every year."

During the coming fall and winter we foresee not only a natural growth in business due to increased population, but an added volume of trade due to unusually good times. Our business will, I expect, increase one-third in the next

KNOXVILLE OPENS ITS NATIONAL EXPOSITION

President Wilson Starts Proceedings Monday With Wireless Message

(By Associated Press.)
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 2.—The 7th National Conservation Exposition was formally opened here today. Grand labor joined with exposition officials in the day's program, which included a celebration both of Labor day and of the opening of the exposition.

A present in which thousands of persons participated was the opening feature of the day's exercises. Many displays to be exhibited at the exposition grounds were carried through the streets in large floats, followed by hundreds of members of labor unions and others employed in Knoxville industries. The parade proceeded from the downtown section to the exposition grounds.

President Woodrow Wilson, through a wireless message extending congratulations and expressions of hearty sympathy with the undertaking, formally opened the exposition. His message was received in "Joy street," the midway of the exposition city, where a wireless station had been erected.

At the meeting which followed the receipt of the president's message Governor H. W. Hootch and Mayor S. C. Heiskell welcomed the exposition officials and visitors from the state and city. Both predicted great educational benefits from the exposition.

President T. Ashby Wright, of the exposition, outlined the purposes of the undertaking as the preservation of conservation of natural resources, particularly reference to the forests and streams.

The exposition will continue until November 1. Among the exhibits are many provided by the federal government, dealing with agriculture, live stock and mineral subjects.

Mrs. Wm. H. Moore and her son, Capt. John L. Moore, Jr., are at the exposition, at the head of the parade.

ASK NEW TRIAL FOR ALFRED S. HAMILTON
Judge Reserves Decision in Case of Trion Man Held for Embezzlement

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 2.—Attorneys for the state and for Alfred S. Hamilton have just argued before Judge Price Edwards at Trion the case of Mr. Hamilton, who was convicted in Chauga Superior court of embezzlement. Judge Edwards has reserved his decision. Hamilton was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, but it is out on bond pending the result of the motion for a new trial. If it is denied, it will be carried to the supreme court.

The matter which resulted in Hamilton's conviction was in connection with the presidency of the Trion Manufacturing company, which operated large cotton mills at Trion, Ga. The mills were put into bankruptcy about two years ago with debts aggregating $100,000. The assets were practically all lost, and by careful management the creditors were paid 50 cents on the dollar.

STRIKERS ROUSED AS RESULT OF SHOOTING

Militia Called to Michigan Mines When Deputies Kill Fifteen-Year-Old Girl

(By Associated Press.)
CALUMET, Mich., Sept. 2.—The copper strike situation took a serious aspect today as the result of the fatal shooting of Margaret Pearson, 15-year-old daughter of a striker at the North Kearney mine, when 30 shots of strikers and women clashed with deputy sheriffs guarding the mine.

The deputies claim that they were driven from the mine property by the strikers, and when they returned to protect the property that the picketers fired on them. Mine leaders denied this, saying the deputies fired without provocation into the crowd of men and women, wounding the girl and several others.

The military forces again took charge of the mine work about the mine at Wolverine and the Kearney as a result of this shooting. General Abner has ordered an investigation.

BOY SCOUTS SOON MAY BE SELF SUPPORTING

Plan on Foot to Assess Each of 300,000 Members 25 Cents a Year

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The Boy Scouts of America, an organization heretofore supported by philanthropy, will seek to make itself supporting. The executive committee of the national council announced a plan whereby the boys of whom there are now 300,000 enrolled as members will be assessed 25 cents a year, beginning October 1.

Local councils of the boy scouts will be divided into two classes, those of the first class, where a central office is maintained, will retain 15 cents out of the 25 cents for local work, sending the balance of 10 cents to the national council for the broader work of the organization. Councils of the second class will retain only 5 cents of the 25 cents contributed. It is hoped that the assessments will enable the organization to become self-supporting.

Thirty-five boy scouts will leave New York September 15 on the proposed transatlantic walk, for which 100,000 miles have been allotted. The boys have been camping for three weeks at a beach resort gathering experience for the long trip. They will go to New Orleans, and probably take an extension from there to the city of New Orleans.

SUGGEST COMPROMISE ON ENGLAND MAY FORM
PROPOSED INCOME TAX

Would Have Increase on Big Fortunes Only When Income Comes Exceeds $250,000

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—An increase of the income tax on large fortunes only when the incomes run above $250,000 annually is the basis of a compromise Democratic members of the senate finance committee will recommend to the caucus tomorrow night.

The attitude of the so-called insurgent Democrats was such as to indicate they would not accept the arrangement without a fight, and the caucus may extend two or three days. The finance committee members have decided to leave the rates of the income tax, as at present, up to the $100,000 mark.

The new law proposed in addition to the normal tax above the $100,000 mark would be 4 per cent on income from $100,000 to $250,000, 5 per cent on income from $250,000 to $500,000, and 6 per cent on income above $500,000. The statute will adjourn at 5 p. m. tomorrow and the committee will then begin its efforts to agree on the remaining provisions of the bill.

It is estimated there are 550 persons in this country with incomes between $100,000 and $500,000, 120 with incomes between $500,000 and $1,000,000, and more than 100 with incomes above $1,000,000.

The committee Democrats will recommend to the Democratic caucus that the original provisions of the house bill taxing the entire income of high income earners be retained, but that the exemption of that portion of the income returned to policyholders in the form of dividends.

ONE MILLION TRAVELERS IN GOTHAM LABOR DAY
(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—An estimate that the Labor day influx and exodus of travelers here was over a million persons, including 750,000 vacationers, on their way home, 100,000 bound to the south, and 250,000 bound to the north, was made today by the volume of travel was gradually increasing for single day in the history of the metropolis.

BRITISH BARRISTERS WOULD HAVE ORGANIZATION SIMILAR TO THAT IN UNITED STATES

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Sept. 2.—The idea of establishing in England an organization similar to the American bar association has been revived among British barristers by the detailed reports which are published here of the recent American association meeting in Montreal. The law society serves the purpose so far as the lower of the two branches in which the legal profession in England is divided, but the bar remains without an institution for gathering opinions among barristers as to important legal matters, for the bar council is neither a representative nor a powerful body.

A scheme has been broached for holding in London during the last week of the long vacation, a congress of barristers at which, political, legal problems and other matters of special interest to the legal profession would be discussed. It is believed an organization similar to the American bar association might be developed.

Music for Men

Darwin, when he was old, regretted that he had so concentrated on his life work as to have neglected music

Had he lived in this age, the CAROL INNER-PLAYER Piano would have afforded him ample means of gratifying his musical taste.

For business men and professional men, life is too short to begin the mastery of the keyboard.

The CAROL INNER-PLAYER makes this unnecessary. The accurate striking of each note is accomplished for you.

You have but to focus your attention upon the proper expression—interpretation. And here, after all, is where you discover the real charm and fascination of music.

A visit to our warerooms will convince you that the music produced on our CAROL INNER-PLAYER Piano is not mechanical.

GOOD CROPS MEAN LOTS OF CASH TO SPEND THIS FALL

In past years, although their purchases have been conservative, they have been the greatest in the history of the state. The total sales and profits were greater than ever before. He expects this condition to exist throughout the rest of the year. "I am very optimistic over prospects," said Mr. Johnson. "I think that this fall will be the greatest in the history of Atlanta."

A $75,000 INCREASE

Lester York, of M. Rich & Bros. Co., predicted an unusually prosperous season. "We expect to do a great business this fall than ever before," he said. "We have had in a stock of goods bigger than ever before. Speaking for the firm, the business has increased steadily every year. To a great extent this is due to the increased population of Atlanta. I think the volume of business during the coming season, however, will be greater than the simple increase in population would insure."

PLenty OF CASH

L. J. Haid, of Daniel Brothers, was most enthusiastic in his comment on the fall outlook. "We certainly are going to have a large business," he said. "We have not closed a month since we have been in business, with every indication pointing to a fine fall business."

"Several things contribute to the brightness of the outlook. The immense crop which Georgia is producing, which are already in sight, are of course, the most important factor. The industrial situation has been good. People that wanted to buy have not been able to do so. The buying has been conservative. It is probable that the buying will be needed this fall."

"The crop which will bring the cash into the store and business will feel the effects."

"I predict a large fall business," said Charles A. Smith, manager of Jacobs Hardware. "In fact, it is already started. Things have picked up lately, and we are already feeling the benefits of a prosperous season."

"My prediction is based on the crop outlook and on the general outlook, feeling which prevails among manufacturers and business men. It is probable that there will be plenty of money in the country, and that money will be going to turn it loose. These, and other things, point definitely to an unusually good season."

BUYING ON CROPS

W. W. Orr, of the Georgia House Clothing company, says that already an enormous business has been done in the fall in 1913 than in 1912, and that the outlook is for a splendid fall season.

"Referring to general reports of crop conditions and prices, I think there is a good chance of an increase in business during the fall and winter. The outlook is for a very large business this fall," said Mr. Orr.

"The largest business in the history of the state, and while the cotton crop is not a growing business, the outlook for this fall will be profitable in comparison with last year. If the general outlook holds good."

W. R. Ryck, of the Ryck Shoe company, said: "We expect the biggest business we have ever had, and have planned accordingly. There is every indication of a greater prosperity than in the past."

"BUYING IS HEAVY," Clarence Haverly, of the Haverly upholstery company, says. "We have every reason to believe that business will be going through the roof this year. In the big markets, from which I have just returned, the buying has been heavy and general. It is expected that the outlook for the fall will be very good."

"The business men are a unit in declaring that the outlook for the fall will be very good. The outlook is for a very large business this fall, and the outlook is for a very large business this fall."

Over 100 Applicants For Jesse Mercer's Job

Charles L. Davis Probably Will Be Appointed—Federal Job For Mercer Likely

More than 100 applicants are seeking the position of state game and fish commissioner, which is to be filled by Jesse Mercer, which rumor says Governor Shivers is to give to Charles L. Davis.

Several very well known men are making applications to the governor's office, and each applicant gives in detail as to his previous life and qualifications for the place.

Commissioner Mercer's term expired Monday, but he will hold office until he is succeeded by the successor he named.

Governor Shivers has just announced his intention with regard to the appointment, but it is expected to do so in the next few days.

Commissioner Mercer at present is in Washington on business connected with his appointment. It has been rumored that if Governor Shivers fails to reappoint Mr. Mercer, the latter will resign and go to the federal government. This rumor is, however, unfounded.

WITH CARTOONIST BREWERTON AT THE FORSYTH

Crowded House Sees Emma Bunting Open Lyric Season

A busy time this year.

Following Miss Bunting's departure to Lyric will show the regular line of plays, many of which made hits here last season, many of which are new.

The audience at the Forsyth theater was laughing immediately Monday night at a vaudeville sketch detailing the troubles of a stage manager at a rehearsal. It was very funny and all eyes were focused on the stage.

Suddenly a man stride down the center aisle, plumped himself in the seat of the orchestra leader, and called gently for "two beers." The audience howled. The man was Mann, the chief of the sketch. His antics in the orchestra leader's place kept the chuckles rippling from pit to prompt as long as he stayed there.

It was after the performance and Miss Bunting was telling her manager just how pleased she was with her return to Atlanta and how she was wishing she could stay here instead of going to New Orleans.

"I of the stage and on Little Emma Bunting. I really much like you. You call her little instinctively, until the adjective has grown to be a part of her name almost. She is just as little then, just as 'suburban-haired,' just as free with that girlish laugh of hers."

"Yes," she said, "we've been playing in Memphis all this summer and we've been told that you're a little bit of a comedian. You're just as little as I am when it comes to merry-go-rounds. I'm crazy about it. We'll be in Atlanta all this week and then go down to New Orleans. We thought we'd better give the Atlanta public a show for a while. You see, I've played here about six nights."

Even if Monday was the 20th night, the Atlanta public, or all of it, it could squeeze into the Lyric, voiced the Lyric continually that it was not tired of Miss Bunting and her play. Miss Bunting knows just how to reach the feelings of the Lyric patron, and she reached him and tickled him, how clever all through the performance.

The play that called "The Circus Girl" and although there wasn't a drop of a circus in it, yet it was a comedy that is typical of the Bunting style of plays. The plot was laid in London on the Fourth of July, so you can be sure there was something doing all the way.

Miss Bunting, however, was the whole show. While she is admirably supported by George Whitaker, her leading man, and a company that is entirely new to Atlanta, yet she herself is a star and away the life of the play and probably is the best actress that will appear at the Lyric during the whole season.

She has a charm and a way with her that catches the audience from the first time she switches on to the stage. In a group of a hundred, she can tell all she stretches off again in another that is equally dazzling.

The Lyric was packed, partly because it was Miss Bunting that was the first night of the season for the popular little playhouse. If the initial performance is a criterion for the ones that are to follow, the Lyric will have a good season.

JIM CONLEY LIKELY TO BE INDICTED FRIDAY

New Grand Jury Organized. Nineteen True Bills on First Day

Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey said Tuesday morning that in all probability Jim Conley, the negro on whose evidence the state mainly rested its case in the trial of Leo M. Frank, will be indicted Friday at the next meeting of the grand jury. The charge, said the solicitor, will be accessory after the crime.

The new grand jury met Tuesday morning, organized and transacted routine business.

Nineteen true bills were returned, most of them being against negroes.

STATE CHEMIST WILL CONDEMN ATLANTA MILK

found to be found to be bad doesn't prove that it was bad when the dairyman put it in the city. It is more likely to be that the soda fountain allowed by any city in the world in dirty vessels and failing to keep it clean.

"The milk problem in a city the size of Atlanta is a very big and a very complex problem. There are many factors that affect milk, beginning with the health of the cow and ending with the handling of the milk by the consumer. The city only began eight years ago to supervise the milk supply in a thorough, up-to-date way. Our work so far has been directed mainly to purifying sources of supply."

"HAS MADE PROGRESS"

"I have made progress," said Atlanta's milk supply companies favorably with any city in the country. It's perfect, of course, but it's getting better all the time.

In ten years Atlanta has reduced her infant mortality rate 25 per cent. That is the greatest reduction accomplished by any city in the country. Indianapolis being second with 29 per cent. (Don't!) That speaks well for the progress we have made toward a better milk supply."

STATE-VIDE INSPECTION.

In addition to the survey of Atlanta's milk supply by Dr. Stallings, other inspectors of the state department of agriculture are inspecting dairies throughout the state, pursuant to the pure milk law. This is the first time since the law was enacted that the state department of agriculture is inspecting dairies throughout the state.

Commissioner Price will give the dairymen ample time to improve conditions and to that end will not prosecute them for first offenses. But the delinquents will be acquainted with the facts as they are and will be directed to improve without delay. Inspectors will be sent to visit the law after having been duly warned.

Some thirty or forty dairymen called at the commissioner's office Tuesday morning to ask for information and instructions.

Ex-Convict Bram to Speak at Church on Wednesday Evening

Thomas Bram, paroled from the federal prison last Wednesday, after serving a seventeen-year term, will speak at the Jones Avenue Baptist church Wednesday evening on his experience as a convict.

The public is invited. Bram says that he will go into details of the accusation against him of committing a triple murder, and will tell why he is a sinner of the charge.

The church has taken a unique method of advertising the speaker by putting a copy of The Journal containing Bram's picture on the outside of the building. On the placard is written in red letters: "This man speaks here Wednesday night."

Soft Hats in soft greens and blues, including navy, with velvet bands for distinction, have furnished the inspiration for the first flurry in fall fashions.

Browns, including bronze, and lead gray or graphite follow close in favor.

Another Page of the Year's Fashion Book Is Turned and the New Suits of Charming Style are Shown

To compare the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. second floor with a huge fashion book would not be amiss right now.

Fact is, it is something more than a fashion book, for here are the suits themselves, that show better than any pictures ever could just the new styles are. Your eyes may see the colors--the rich, fine colors--the graceful lines, the trimmings that really trim, the exquisite workmanship, that something they call and know as STYLE.

It is a display of suits to add fresh laurels to the record of the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. Second Floor! We say this with a sense of confidence and with full knowledge of the records of past years.

Suits of styles as true and worthy as new coined monies are now ready in abundance--in such abundance that it would be folly to begin telling what they are and how they differ from styles you have known. And besides the fun of it all is in seeing them and trying them on.

And that is what we would have you do.

What Anne Rittenhouse Says

PARIS, Aug. 21.—Poetry's Russian poet is startlingly novel, and it is the belief of some of the most exclusive American buyers that it is a sensation because it entirely changes the old formula, and that after all, in the season the buyers are looking for.

You know we have worn all our evening coats drawn about the knees so that the hem would be as narrow as our bodies allowed and the top as full as the cloth could make. This new coat by Poiret begins to flare from the waist and reaches itself into an immense ripple above the ankles.

He shows two or three of these; one is long enough to touch the floor and is as modish in its line as that one expects to hear the music from "the Master Singer" as the fashion waits in.

The other one is laced, or rather is drawn in at the waist with a huge ornament, and then cut off above the ankles. The hem measures four yards. That is a statement that startles the "fem" will say. "At last, the women are going to be safe." The women will say: "How will I ever manage to reach that last row of a coat?"

It is too early for either remark to be of value because Poiret has just introduced the coat and the majority of American buyers consider it too revolutionary to take. Anne, however, is not so sure. The material of the garment is thick, yet supple and modish in color and texture. It looks like velvet cloth which has been stamped with a huge flower. Five-inch bands of shawl are used of the hem, around the neck and at the wrist. The sleeves are extremely wide and straight, and the entire garment is so different from everything that we have worn that at first sight this coat seems impossible, and then the beauty and its novelty grow upon you until you recognize why it is the sensation of the week.

These materials that resemble apple and cloth were directly copied from the Oriental fabrics by Poiret and are used by him for evening gowns and coats. His street suits are quite simple in effect, but original in detail. Here and there he employs a brilliant waistcoat, but it is not in evening until the main theme opens her coat. This silk and the effect originally make the think of the children toys which seem to be a plain but a handsome piece of surface, give one a handsome piece of surface, give one a handsome piece of surface.

One of his new coats is entirely different from the street suits shown everywhere else. It is in an odd shape of burgundy red and has a short loose coat that is cut very much on the lines of an English sport coat. The sleeves are cut in one with the back and front, and the material reaches out from neck to hem, falling in folds at the hips. It is longer in the back than in the front and the tail in the hem is not enough to be awkward, but just enough to cling away from the figure in a graceful manner.

The skirt is quite plain, as all his street skirts are, giving their smartness to some new development of the main

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

BY THOMAS W. BURGESS

(Copyright, 1913 by J. G. Lloyd.)

Of course, Sammy Jay often visited the old briar patch. Whenever anything is going on, there you will find Sammy Jay. Sammy was very much interested in Peter Rabbit's family. He had had so much fun watching Johnny Chuck and his babies up in the Old Orchard that as soon as he heard that Peter Rabbit had a family he hurried over there right away and after that he managed to take in the old briar patch every day, as he made his rounds of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows to find out all that was going on.

"I seem to me that it is about time you began to teach those little scamps that life isn't all play, Peter Rabbit," said he one day as he watched them playing hide and seek.

"I think that one of these days Granny and I will have a fine rabbit dinner."

Peter looked up and scowled. "I don't need your advice, Sammy Jay," he replied crossly, for Peter and Sammy were not the very best of friends. "I guess that I know better than you do what a Rabbit has to learn."

Sammy laughed. "Of course, you know best," he replied. "I was just thinking of what Teddy Fox told me this morning."

"What was that?" demanded Peter sharply.

"Oh," said Sammy, blushing a little, "he said that you had the most beautiful babies he had seen for a long time, and he was very glad to see that they were even known enough to follow their mother."

Peter grew quite pale and looked badly to see if his babies were safe, as he knew that they were. Then he pretended to be angry. "You are just pretending," he said. "I was just thinking of what Teddy Fox told me this morning."

Peter grew quite pale and looked badly to see if his babies were safe, as he knew that they were. Then he pretended to be angry. "You are just pretending," he said. "I was just thinking of what Teddy Fox told me this morning."

Now, all the time Sammy was thinking those things Peter was doing some hard thinking, too. In spite of the scowling way in which he had received Sammy's advice, Peter had known in his heart that Sammy was right and though he didn't believe what Sammy had said about the fox, he was sure that he was right. He was sure that he was right.

Welchance and Robertson Wage Race for Batting Honors

RALLY IN THE NINTH GAVE CRACKERS GAME

When Wallace Smith Was Hit and Winning Run Forced Home, the Crowd Went Wild—Deserved to Win

With 7,000 fans yelling as never before in the history of the local baseball park, Atlanta snatched a game from New Orleans Monday afternoon and drew within three games of the league leading Mobile team, the winning run being forced over the ninth inning, after two were down. It was a fitting way to draw within striking distance of the Mobile team.

And the score was 1 to 2. Joe Connelman getting credit for his second win of the series, while Paddy was penalized for the second time during the stay of the Pies.

There was a crowd of some 7,000 people in the stadium and they certainly made the noise. At the start they were noisy; when the score in the eighth inning was 1 to 2, the Cracker fans became noisy and when the Cracker team won out in the ninth inning they became loudest. It was a night worth remembering. It was a night worth remembering.

For Connelman desired to get away with his game. He allowed his sixth hit and four of these were of the serious variety. Hendrix's triple in the ninth inning, one of the two runners who were on base, was the key. Hendrix's triple was the key. Hendrix's triple was the key.

Harry Welchance was the man who started the rally. Pops up in the ninth inning, he was called to second base. He was called to second base. He was called to second base.

Tommy Long's heavy hitting in the afternoon game boosted his average considerably. His Cracker fans are mauling the ball at 2.00. His Cracker fans are mauling the ball at 2.00.

Harry Welchance came a bit under the hitting mark when he got one hit, but he was not out of the game. He was not out of the game. He was not out of the game.

George Elliott, known as "Sept. 2," won the decision last night over Sammy Trout of Columbus. He won the decision last night over Sammy Trout of Columbus.

Crackmen were certainly mad at the Atlanta Labor day affair. And every opportunity for this cheering was given. The cheering was given. The cheering was given.

POOR GOLFER FOR CRACKS

None of the Stars in Big Tourney Turned in Low Cards for Day

GARDEN CITY, N. Y., Sept. 2.—After a day of wedding and golf, the stars of the National Amateur championship tournament turned in low cards for the day.

Scores of 84 and better left 17 players still eligible to take part in the second half of the qualifying round, but six of 84, which will play off for nine places, so that 44 can continue in the championship division.

There were many upsets and disappointments during the play, and with a few exceptions the quality of golf displayed was only mediocre. The honors of the day went to Francis Quimet, a young player from Woodstock, Mass., who holds the Bay State amateur championship.

On his record of previous years and his winning of the Metropolitan Atlanta Jersey state championships this season, Jerome T. Travers, Jr., of New Orleans, was picked by many as an unbeatable player.

After their scores had been posted, it was found that the initial pair in the morning play.

OYSTERS "R" NOW IN SEASON CRACKERS HAVE WON 20 GAMES IN LAST 25 DECIDING BATTLES

If ever two pennant-contending ball clubs waged a sensational battle for a pennant it is the Atlanta and Mobile clubs of the first season. They have played the class of baseball never before shown in this league.

Record made by Crackers

September 1—Atlanta, 10; New Orleans, 6. September 2—Atlanta, 10; New Orleans, 6. September 3—Atlanta, 10; New Orleans, 6.

MOBILE GUILDS CLASH IN PENNANT SERIES

WELCHANCE AFTER MARK

During Present Series Cracker Hopes to Pass Dave Robertson

Harry Welchance has a great chance to top Dave Robertson, of Mobile, in his race for the league batting honors. And speaking of close races, there is only a two-point difference in these boys, and both are batting at a steady snail.

Harry's great chance lies in the fact that he is at home, and that Robertson does not hit much on the Ponce de Leon mound. Out of the six games in twenty-two times up Robertson has succeeded in connecting only twice. If he hits this up, Welchance will pass by as quickly as he will look like he is lashed to a pole.

Although Welchance has a chance to win the league official honors, Robertson has already won the Hendrix trophy. This was decided on the average through game after game before the season was over, so as to enable the players to receive the trophies on the field before the season was over.

ATLANTA BOY IS KILLED ON NASHVILLE SPEEDWAY

Three Others Also Meet Death in Crash of High-Powered Racers

The body of Wayne Shepard, during Atlanta automobile driver killed in a crash of four cars which claimed three other lives on the race course at Nashville, Tenn., Monday, will arrive in this city Tuesday night at 1:30 o'clock and will be taken to Patterson's chapel.

The funeral will be from the residence, 48 Germania avenue, Decatur, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and the interment will be in West View cemetery.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Shepard; by one brother, Leo Shepard, and by three sisters, Mrs. W. A. Pennington and Misses Shepard and Alice Shepard.

Shepard was in Atlanta and Decatur until a year ago when he moved to Nashville to enter the automobile business. He was twenty-two years of age. His father, J. S. Shepard, is a Decatur grocer.

The others killed were: JOHN W. SHERILL, driver of Buick car No. 3; R. H. RIDGERS, mechanic of Buick car No. 4; "GOCCHI" BROWN, mechanic of Buick car No. 5.

The latter race was driven by Shepard. These were injured: Freeman Grubb, mechanic, Mercur car No. 2, injuries not serious; Clyde Donahue, driver and sole occupant of Studebaker; "The White Horse" No. 10, slight bruise; Edward Polk, driver of Mercur car No. 2, slightly bruised.

Mercur car No. 6, with Jake Lovell driving and Ted Shepard mechanic, and Apperson No. 9, with T. L. Evans driving and Frank Bell mechanic, escaped uninjured, although they were unable to stop and rushed through the wreckage at full speed. Both were flung before rounding the track again.

The terrible accident was the climax of a day of successful racing. It occurred on the far side of the mile track at the state fair grounds directly opposite a grandstand packed with spectators and a great many people. The twenty-five-mile race was in progress.

Four of the high-powered cars were wrecked and rendered into a mass of twisted steel and iron. The four who met death were killed instantly.

The quartet of daring drivers who met death became a little more so as they crossed the track at the wrong time, as the automobile sped around the track at a terrific speed the lead ran across the course. To avoid striking him Driver Clyde Donahue swerved his car.

The sudden turn wrenched one of his front wheels from its axle. Displaying the greatest bravery, he attempted to turn directly into the outer fence and thus not touch the track for the cars behind him. He succeeded, but the fence fell back over the track and the three automobiles immediately behind him piled up into a heap of twisted metal.

It was in this pile of wreckage that it was that the bodies of eight drivers and mechanics.

HOW ACCIDENT OCCURRED. The six cars were spending around the circular track at a terrific rate of speed when the Studebaker "White Horse" carrying the ill-fated driver, who was 250 yards in the lead of the Mercur car No. 2.

On the third lap the "White Horse" moved by the grandstand and took the curve at full speed. It happened in a flash of an instant. Suddenly the spectators were brought to their feet by the sound of a loud crash as Driver Clyde Donahue fell right from the track when striking a small negro boy who ran across his path, and crashed from a car into the outside fence, rather than black the track.

Those who were too close behind him to slow up it was a mere piece of bad luck that the wreckage of the four cars struck the track and the wreckage of the four cars struck the track and the wreckage of the four cars struck the track.

MOTHER SO POORLY

Could Hardly Care for Children—Finds Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bovina Center, N.Y.—"For six years I have not had as much health as I have now. I was very young when my first baby was born and my health was very bad after that. They told me to keep on my feet and I have Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me wonderfully. I do most of my own work now and take care of my children. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."
